Teen addiction is on the rise in Maryland.

Come join us for an informative evening led by professionals and survivors. Find out what you can do to help prevent your teens from getting into trouble with drugs.

Connect with community resources who can help!

Panel discussion will be led by

- Rhondyln Gross, Prevention Specialist Baltimore County Health Department
- Caroline Lee, Caron Treatment Center
- parent and teen survivor of an addiction to heroin

RSVP to amerani@bcps.org if you plan to attend. Light refreshments will be served.
